A Big Cut.

The grading of the double track of the Southern Railway, between Orange and Rapidan, is about completed. The iron Rapidan, is about completed. The from bridge over the Rapidan river will soon by completed. Cane's Cut, about two miles north of Orange, is about finished. Some little dressing of the cut and trimming the edges of the hill will complete the work. The work of excavating the work. The work of excavating Cane's Cut was begun in March, 1903, Cane's Cut was begun in March, 1903, and worked night and day all through the summer, and almost every day through the winter. This is one of the longest and deeptst cuts on the Southern Railway. The new grade is about eleven feet deeper than the old road bed. This is done to do away with the heavy grade between Coster and Rapidan. The grade has been greatly improved and trains can make much better time than Want Children for Adoption.

The annual report of Superintendent William J. Maybee, of the Children's Home Society of Virginia, shows some interesting facts. One of these which will be astonishing to most people is that the demand for adoption in this that the demand for adoption in this State is greater than the supply. It is not indicated whether people prefer adopting children to the trouble of having them for themselves or whether there are many childless couples whose paternal and maternal insticts have been paternal in insticts have been appeared. denird. It is stated by Mr. Maybee as a fact, however, that he has on file over 100 applications for children for adop-tion, notwithstanding that the society in the last three years has received and placed 235 dependent children and in the last year has placed in homes sixty-

Forty-ounce Baby Wonder.

A 40-ounce baby girl, with hands the size of large thumbnails and legs a bit larger than leadpencils, was born to Mrs. William Medlar, of Reading, Pa., on Wednesday. She is perfectly healthy and promising infant, and appears more like a doil than the lusty, growing bit of humanity that she is.

HAIR TELLS CHARACTER.

Color of Hair Said to Indicate a Person's Temperament.

Many people believe that blonde, or light hair denotes affection and dark hair constancy. A person without hair is not devoid of character; far from it. The disposition of the average bald-headed man is to show such solicitude for the welfare of others, that he negfor the welfare of others, that he neg-tects himself. A germ causes baldness. Prof. Sabouraud, of Paris, France, in-nocculated a rabbit with Dandruff germs, causing it to become totally bald in five weeks' time. To rid the scalp of these dangerous germs it is necessary to apply Newbry's Herpicide. "Destroy the cause—you remove the effect."

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit. Mich.

Dandruff 10 Years Cured "My head was thickly covered with dandros, and had been for ten years. I used to have dandruff all over my coat, and it was imbedded in my head so that it looked like a disease. I had used dozens of preparations advertised for the cure of dandruff, without result. Since using Hay's Hairliealth (and I have only been using it about a week and a half), I have not one bit of dandruff in any part of my scalp. My hair is darker and is much healthier-looking.—
